NZ Women in Hospitality Network

Share. Educate. Inspire.

Welcome to those who haven't received a mail from us before. This is our first in this format. They currently are just to inform you of the previous event's discussions so you don't miss out and let you know when the next one is on its way.

Check out the directory here

The beginnings of our directory prior to having the website up and running. This will be to build up a network for you and others to go to whenever looking for a woman in the industry, hopefully bringing more prospects and opportunities for us. Go have a look around. What should we add? Is your name in there? If not fill out the form and that will get you onto the list.

This is just the start of making our voices heard more and more. To do that we need to keep communication lines open. Share stories with friends, family and colleagues. Reach out to others in the industry to find new connections, collaborate on projects, make waves so big we can't be missed.

Get added to the directory.

Location of our September event.

Thanks to the ladies over at Field & Green who will be hosting our Wellington members for the evening on 10 September at 6:30

There will be some delicious meals prepared by the team and some interesting stories told by the speakers so come hungry.

Head over to the facebook event to mark yourself as going.

Have an idea, comment, or suggestion, don't hesitate to send it along. This is a member's driven group and so we are looking to build it to what the community feels it needs. Want to help? Great, we definitely need it. Let us know what you can offer.

Thanks see you at the next event.
